April Support Meeting:

Helping Children Grief Melanie Elwood

Thursday, April 12, 2018

7:00 p.m. Logan Regional Hospital Classroom #7

Join us for a discussion on helping our children grieve the loss of their sibling(s). Whether they were alive when their sibling died, or were born after the loss, they will have a unique, personal experience in grief. Melanie Elwood, mother of four, will lead this discussion. She had two boys before her stillborn son and had to help them grieve the loss of their baby brother; and she has had a daughter since her loss and is learning how to teach her daughter about the baby they lost. She has been able to see both sides of grief with her children.

Upcoming Events:

You're going into a season where you're about to experience breakthrough after breakthrough because what you went through didn't break you.

@pastormaeem

People think I'm lying about being hurt because they see me laughing. But actually, I laugh to keep myself from crying.
